Description

We are delighted to offer for sale this large oil on canvas by the French artist Roger de la Corbiere, who has signed the painting in the lower right hand corner. On the Stacy Marks label verso, the painting is entitled 'Whispering Waves'. The painting depicts a twilight/moonlight scene, with the moon reflected in the waves lapping near the rocky shore. The location of the painting would somewhere on the Brittany coast, which was the artist's main subject matter. - ROGER DE LA CORBIERE, B 1893 - Was a French artist who was born in Vienna. He studied under the Russian painter Choltse, who was a great exponent of light and shade particularly in snow scenes. He exhibited at the Paris Salon for 35 years, receiving the Silver Medal in 1954. In 1957 he received the Bronze Medal from the Salon des Independants. The French State acquired several of his paintings in 1925. His painting are in the collections of many well known persons throughout the world. - He worked mainly from his studio in Brittany, but also spent some time in the Riviera. His daughter carried on the family tradition, painting similar scenes. The painting is framed in its original 3 1/2" gilt frame with linen...
