Description

A superb country house upholstered armchair by renowned cabinet makers "Holland & Sons". This chair beautifully upholstered in a printed linen, having a buttoned back, deep sprung seat and scrolled arms, raised on Mahogany turned and fluted tapering legs and terminating in brass castors. The splayed back legs stamped "Holland & Sons" to the inside and also stamped "E. Pitt" a well known chair maker for Holland's. The quality of this chair throughout is outstanding, not newly upholstered but in excellent condition, super comfortable and comes with a warning of seriously unproductiveness when seated! English, Circa 1865 Dimensions: Height: 29 Inches - 74 cm, Width: 31 Inches - 79 cm, Seat Height: 16 Inches - 41 cm FREE DELIVERY WITHIN ENGLAND & WALES LAPADA MEMBER The firm of Holland & Sons (1803-1942) became from 1843 one of the largest and most successful cabinet makers, and a rival to Gillows of Lancaster and London. The company's labelled Day books are now housed in the Victorian and Albert Museum Archive of Art and Design where they present a virtual 'who's who' of nineteenth century society. Established in 1803 by Stephen Taprell and William Holland, a rel...
