Description

This is an antique French silver lancet case dating from c1850 with beautiful engraving and a flip lid. It's all in excellent condition with no marks or damage and the hinge works perfectly. The case measures 2 1/2" (6 cms) x just over 1" (3 cms) and has the initials JF with each initial either side of a mortar which signifies it was made by Jules Fatoux who was working in France in the mid 19th century. There are no sections inside the case so although I have called it a lancet case it could be used for sewing needles or toothpicks. Free worldwide fully insured shipping included in the price.
