Description

Antique French Gothic Clock Set by Louis Japy. ~ French - Circa 1880 ~ ~~ Excellent condition ~~ A Stunning French gilt brass clock set by Louis Japy, beautiful, clean and bright original gilding. The style is French gothic with C scrolls, flowing foliage, a goddess mask and shields with vacant cartouches. To the side of the dial there are stylised flaming torches. Clock case is of waisted shape with fretted front, broken arch above the dial and sitting on a base with scroll feet. Pendulum can be seen through the fret work, swinging inside the case. Five light candelabra are conforming in style and are complete with snuffers. The dial is enamel on copper, lettered with Roman numerals and red half-hour markers. It has a cast brass centre, convex glass and is complete with original blued steel hands. The French movement is of the highest quality and has the L. P. Japy mark on the movement backplate. It is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully serviced by our clockmaker; it has been completely dismantled, cleaned, serviced and two new springs fitted. The movement was then test run until we were satisfied of problem free running. Pendulum has been...
