Description

A superb beech framed antique armchair, with attractively shaped back. The reeded arms of this open Victorian armchair are supported on well turned uprights, the legs follow the same form. The traditional cross stretcher adds to the style of this decorative chair. Using traditional methods, this chair has been recovered in our workshop using a soft high quality fabric in a neutral, but warm oatmeal shade. The chair is sold with a decorative bolster cushion, in the same oatmeal coloured fabric. A delightful chair ready to enhance your interior scheme. c.1890
