Description

This large and decorative 19th century cast iron campana shaped urn, (bell shaped), is in excellent condition considering its function and age - the surface is covered with layers of degraded paint which can be left for its decorative appeal or over painted, after preparation, for future protection. Carriage is nearly always carried out personally within London, Surrey and Sussex - Delivery is free for clients within mainland Britain - Professional, competitive and trusted courier and shipping companies are engaged for the remainder of our customers. We do strive to accurately describe and illustrate our stock within the 'Selling Antiques' website. However we do understand that it is not always possible to judge from photographs how an item will look within the home or garden. For this reason if notified within seven days from date of delivery we offer a full refund (less any agreed carriage costs) once the item has been returned.
