Description

A lovely example of a walnut revolving desk chair dating to the late 19th century. In excellent original condition - this chair spins as if it was new and the colour, finish and patina are all indicative of a chair that has been loved and looked after. A minimal amount of professional restoration was needed to bring forward its inherent qualities. The castors are original and still in great order. Carriage is nearly always carried out personally within London, Surrey and Sussex - Delivery is free for clients within mainland Britain - Professional, competitive and trusted courier and shipping companies are engaged for the remainder of our customers. We do strive to accurately describe and illustrate our stock within the 'Selling Antiques' website. However we do understand that it is not always possible to judge from photographs how an item will look within the home or garden. For this reason if notified within seven days from date of delivery we offer a full refund (less any agreed carriage costs) once the item has been returned.
