Description

A lovely pair of antique leather shaped armchairs raised on mahogany cabriole legs with acanthus leaf carving to the knee of very good proportions making them extremely comfortable. This pair of club / armchairs date from early 20th Century circa 1900 and have a beautifully shaped back with rolled arm rests, a feather squab cushion and brass stud detail trim raised on well carved mahogany ball and claw feet. The pair of antique leather chairs have been re-upholstered using a traditional method which is then hand dyed and are sure to make a fine addition to any traditional or contemporary home. We specialize in leather upholstery and have sold many club chairs and armchairs to interior designers, trade and private clients from all over the world.
