Description

A late Victorian three branch brass candelabra in excellent condition. The brass work is superb, with very fine details all over especially the central column and around the candle cups which have floral shapes and patterns around. It demonstrates exceptionally fine workmanship. The two main candle cups are attached by curved arms with an arrow finial - see the main photo; and the square base has four little bun feet as seen clearly in Photo 2. The candelabra measures 32.5cm in height; 31cm across and the stand is 10cm square. The costs of postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price, but please contact us for delivery quotes for other areas.
