Description

This is a lovely Welsh dresser. It has a great colour and patina. It has 2 very attractively shaped, fielded panelled doors flanking a central panel which again has a pretty carved panel. Above there are 3 fielded panelled drawers. It's small proportions are ideal. The top sits securely on the base but it base also looks good without the top and there are no location holes. The handles are replacements but it did originally have the identical swan neck handles. It is 55" wide 75" high 19" deep
