Description

Super pair of shaped linen upholstered club armchairs. These very well proportioned shaped club armchairs have a rounded back with serpentine horseshoe shaped sides and scrolled arms finished with cream linen fabric with contrasting close nail tack detailing to the fronts and backs. The arms having decorative shallow buttoning fall to a feathered down cushion with sprung seats making them a very comfortable chair for sitting and relaxing in. Raised on turned bun feet and later brass castors these pair of armchairs date to circa 1880-1900 and having been reupholstered in a neutral linen cotton mix fabric enabling them to work well in any setting.
