Description

An extremely fine quality ebonised and bone inlaid mid 19th century four door credenza. Finely constructed with good proportions this four door credenza has a ebonised shaped top having bone stringing and a moulded edge with brass beading over a inlaid frieze with gilt and painted plaques. Beneath the top are two central inlaid doors with gilt and painted plaques which open to reveal a fitted shelved and lined interior flanked by two Corinthian columns having brass capitals and two bowed glass doors retained two lined and inlaid shelves. Having a shaped apron the whole is raised on turned feet and is in immaculate condition with working keys. A very striking item of furniture that exudes quality and is sure to be the talking point of any room.
