Description

18th.c. Welsh oak Cwpwrdd Deuddarn or two piece cupboard c.1760. Typical of the form it has a small upper piece with two small doors either side of a fixed centre and an overhanging canopy with turned drop pendants. This sits on a larger cupboard base with a single plank top with a moulded edge. Solid oak throughout with square panels to the doors on both sections, repeated on the sides. Carved top rail to the upper section, fine early iron hinges on the base. Particularly good colour and patina. With some later repairs and restorations. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Keys supplied. Dimensions: width 53", depth 19", height 62".
