Description

Circa 1920, very unusual bronze 3 door cabinet from Jenners Department Store in Princes Street; a Scottish institution now being refurbished. The cabinet with its 3 panelled frosted lid and a bronze rail running the length of the cabinet. There are 3 bronze framed doors, each with a locking clasp. The external frame is also bronze with its slight pagoda top, polished panelled ends and back making the cabinet free standing. This stylish piece of furniture could be used in a walk-in wardrobe or used for display in many settings. A rare piece of history from a Scottish legendary institution. Size 190cm high x 200cm wide x 74cm deep.
