Description

This is a very old 19th Century antique pine teacher's lectern in good condition for its age with lots of character and charm. A writing slope which opens up to reveal a storage area with a half depth shelf inside and a swivelling circular chalk holder which is slightly damaged. A small set of spindles in a frame on the top back edge. Below is a nicely panelled door. This is a unique talking point for any home. A chance to own a piece of history. We can wax this for you for £47 or you can buy it as pictured in the bare wood for £400 Height: 46", width: 21.5", depth: 21.5".
