Description

Late C18th Italian marble-topped carved gilt-wood and decorated rococo-style console table . Well-carved shapely Northern Italian console table of rococo serpentine outline and neat scale , probably lime-wood frame . Presented in 'as found' original country-house condition with some evidence of over-painting or paint 'refreshment' to the scheme of the 'stone' coloured frame with some parcel gilding . Stylish and flamboyant rococo design with a large shell-like central decoration, raised on a twin-legged splayed central support with scrolled feet , designed to be supported by fixing to a wall . Some minor historic repairs , but complete with no losses . The loose, shaped ,apparently original figured and variegated marble top, with moulded detail to the leading edge. H 32" W 27" D 17" Italy , probably Venice or Veneto region c.1780
