Description

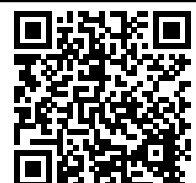

A stunning pair of antique shaped marquetry inlaid kingwood bedside chests / cabinets dating to circa 1900. This beautiful pair of French chests have a shaped marquetry inlaid top quarter veneered in kingwood with a crossbanded edge over a bombe shaped carcass with ormolu mounts. Each chest having three shaped and marquetry inlaid oak lined and handcut dovetailed drawers with crossbanded edges and ornate ormolu handles. Raised on fine and elegant shaped legs with ormolu sabots this identical pair of chests of drawers are finished to both sides and the back so being able to stand freely within the room. They are often used as bedside chest but also work extremely well either side of a sofa with a pair of lamps. In excellent condition having been gently restored using traditional methods the chests have a beautiful colour. Offered for sale without any old breaks these are a very attractive and useful pair of chests.
