Description

12 seat mahogany 3 pillar dining table Here we offer this comfortable 12 seat mahogany dining table that stands on 3 pillar supports. This style of table was first designed in the Georgian period and has been a classic ever since. Its elegant and very practical design makes it fantastic to squeeze those extra people around if required, as it has no legs to get in the way. The mahogany top with a wide mahogany cross-banding bordered with a black line inlay. The table is supported to each end with a tripod base and the central column a quadruple support. All with paw cast brass cup castors to each leg. This table would have been made in the first half of the 20thc.
