Description

Pretty pair of early 18th century Dutch Delft plates painted in the oriental style depicting a central scene of a willow tree surrounded by a classic angled fence next to a lotus flower bush. The vignette framed by a pretty frieze and the rims decorated with flowers and foliage. They measure 23cm (9") wide and 2.5cm (1") deep. Condition is good overall; one has 3 chips to the rim and glaze losses to the rim edge and the other has glaze losses to the rim and no body damage. No hairlines or restoration.
