Description

Lovely large 19th Century farmhouse dresser base, stripped back to its original pine finish with its original planked back. There are 3 drawers, each with a large wooden knob, above two cupboard doors with a large central shelf behind the doors. The whole piece has been extensively and sympathetically restored and is in excellent condition. The drawers run well, the cupboards close firmly and it is very clean inside and out. It is a large impressive piece of good proportions, measuring 6ft in length. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
