Description

This superb large VICTORIAN SILVER PORRINGER was made by Sibray, Hall & Co in 1893. Standing on a raised base with gadroon rib decoration and scroll handles it is made from heavy gauge silver and is in excellent condition. It is free from any added engravings, inscriptions or monograms and has no nasty dents or dings. This lovely piece which is now over 120 years old would make a lovely christening gift or add to any collection.
