Description

An early 19th century Georgian mahogany Pembroke table with concealed end drawer stamped HY WALKER LANCASTER (one time employee at Gillows). The table has two drop leaves with rounded corners and reeded edge, turned legs and original castors. The table is sound but has ring marks and stains to the top commensurate with a used item of this age. Closed, the table measures 32inches x 22inches x height 28.5inches. When extended the top measures a useful 32inches x 42.5inches. Viewing welcomed by appointment.
