Description

This is an antique, 19th century hardwood table. Of immense weight, carved from a single piece of hardwood, this exotic piece makes for an interesting side or lamp table. The stepped plinth base mirrors the top bringing symmetry to the piece with the circular stem featuring pierced, ridge back decoration and symbolic geometric carvings to the central column. The top being of a solid piece of timber has acquired an aged ripple adding charm and interest. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
