Description

This antique early Victorian rosewood card table has a wonderful shape, good carvings & many intricate features. I couldn't possibly describe all these features, so just enlarge all the images & see for yourselves. The playing surface has been re-lined with high quality baize. This card table will double up as a console table when not in use. It's in good original condition & has just been French polished. I've described this piece as early Victorian, but it's probably slightly older being of the William IV period 1830-40. It's probably on the cross over of styles having both influences. Width - 35", 89 cm Depth - 17", 43 cm - Open - 34", 86 cm Height - 29", 74 cm
