Description

Here we have for sale a very nice looking antique pine linen press in excellent condition. It is Danish and dates around 1910. It is of a smaller than usual size linen press making this a nice addition to a smaller house/room. This really is an amazing little piece that has so much character including an eyecatching crown and lovely panelled cupboard doors. Inside the cupboard are two shelves, one of which has slots in which would have originally been used to hang ladels. Below the shelves are two tiny drawers. In the bottom section are four full width drawers, one of which is slightly shallower than the others. It is in a waxed condition ready for collection/delivery. Height 76", width 40.5", depth 21"
