Description

Nice original Welsh child's armchair in oak with an ash seat. The top rail overhangs the uprights in the typical style of the period. The curved arms terminate in circular hand-rests and the whole is raised on square legs united by stretchers. This is a beautiful miniature of a standard Welsh farmhouse chair of the middle of the nineteenth century and has a natural untouched finish. Carmarthenshire/ Cardiganshire border of west Wales, circa 1840 22 inches high, 15 inches wide across the top, 14.5 inches deep to the front of the arms.
