Description

Pretty pair of George V silver candlesticks on stepped square bases with cast detailing of ribbons and garlands around the stems and twisted ribbons around the base with stars in each corner. Finished with reeded bands under a flared sconce. Hallmarked for Birmingham 1925 with maker's mark for Ellis Jacob Greenburg. They measure 4 7/8" high and 2 7/8" across the base edge. They are weighted. Condition is very good with no damage or repairs; and with a few tiny dints and surface wear appropriate for age and use.
