Description

This antique Victorian leather armchair is a stunning piece of furniture & is really comfortable. The shape is amazing & the leather as you can see is full of character. I would date this armchair to around the 1840-60 period. It has an iron frame, mahogany feet & original porcelain casters. It has really generous proportions & is really begging to be sat in. I can't see any makers marks, but it has all the qualities of a 'Howard' armchair. Width - 30", 76 cm Depth - 38.6", 98 cm Height - 38", 97 cm Seat height - 17.3", 44 cm
