Description

A wonderful Victorian Garden Seat with provenance originating from The Atholl Estate in the Highlands of Scotland. It has the original iron work with what appears to be original paint, we have had it beautifully restored with new "oak" slats for the seat with stainless steel bolts for longevity and it is ready for use. The oak slats can be oiled, waxed or painted if the purchaser decides that is how they would like. It is approx. 74 inches long and as can be seen in fantastic condition. It is extremely heavy. A real designer item with great provenance.
