Description

Fine quality hand carved antique bergere suite which consists of a 3 seater sofa & 2 matching armchairs. It's solid walnut & probably dates from around the 1890-1900 period. I think this suite is Swedish. Obviously it needs re-upholstering, which I can arrange or sell as is. The frame is sound & has had a polish. The pair of armchairs have some can damage & are being sent away to be repair or replaced where necessary. Right now I'm selling it for £1500 as is. The cost of the caning will go on top of that price. I don't know how much yet, but new panels can cost in the region of £100- £125 & then they need to be stained to match. It's the sides that are damaged. There are four side panels, but I don't think it's all of them. For re-upholstery it will all need to be re-sprung or re-webbed, plus new feather cushions, so it could cost in the region of £800-£1000 for a top job with my upholsterer. There is also a matching marble top coffee table which is shown in the 1st image & also in 'coffee tables' on the site. This suite would definitely be worth recovering, because it's one of the best I've seen & not only would look great, but would also be very comfortable because of i...
