Description

A most attractive and useful antique mahogany round dining table. English. C 1860. The table stands on cabriole legs above brass castors. The top can be placed in the vertical position for storage and in the "Down position" for dining. This beautiful table has been carefully looked after by previous owners and retains all original features and a fabulous antique patination. The base on its cabriole legs is well carved and of good proportions. The top is of figured mahogany, completely flat and level and of sufficient size to seat 6 dining chairs. Dimensions 50" diameter and 30" high. Please see the accompanying chairs with this table
