Description

This is a super quality antique Victorian mahogany pedestal desk in excellent original condition with no marks, damage or repairs. We have owned this desk ourselves for some years and we are selling it because we need to create some space. It is 48" wide (122 cms) x 26" deep (66 cms) x 30" high (76"cms) and the knee height is 23" (60 cms). It has a beautiful polished finish and a lovely colour and patina to the timber. The leather was replaced a few years ago and is a brown/red colour with gilt tooling to the edge. The leather shows no signs of wear and has no marks or blemishes. The drawer fronts have moulded decoration to the edges and the desk has all the original brass locks and as you can see from the pictures, each drawer is edged internally in quadrant bead which is always a sign of quality. It has impressive brass drop handles and each pedestal has 4 castors. The desk splits into 3 sections which makes moving it easy. This is a very good quality desk in great condition with no faults or problems and is ready to use. Delivery within the London area is included in the price - please scroll down to see photos and email elliejbush@gmail.com or telephone R...
