Description

A very elegant Edwardian photograph frame made from sterling silver with a velvet backing and folding easel stand. There is a scroll decoration crowning the top of the frame and two scrolls to the bottom create two feet. The silver is fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1904, and is also lucky enough to have been stamped with an English design registration number. Excellent condition measuring 6" x 5 1/2" with a glazed circular aperture measuring 4 1/4" ready for your favourite picture.
