Description

This extraordinary piece is in lovely condition, the front being smothered in fine brass inlay in various foliate designs. It is also remarkably similar to another chiffonier we currently have in stock, both probably come from the same workshop. The top with a single shelf supported by brass columns and finished off with a wonderful brass gallery. The doors, with rosewood panels, conceal a single shelf and over which are 2 frieze drawers. The top has a molded edge and brass lines inlaid into the top. In very good condition. 1160 mm high, 950mm wide and 340mm deep. Circa 1820.
