Description

Victorian inlaid walnut cardtable This superb example of a Victorian inlaid walnut cardtable stands on finely turned and carved walnut legs. This design is quite rare and is more stable than the tables with central columns. The shaped rectangular top has box stringing as well as fine inlaid designs. The frieze also has the fine inlays and stringing as well as elegant bow ends. The top swivels to reveal a 'cigar box' mahogany lined storage area, and then opens up for the baize playing area. 97cms long 51cms deep 74cms high PRICE MATCHING Antiques are quite unique as it is impossible to price match.
