Description

A Large French Gilt Wall Mirror This very tall Mirror has a bright Gilt Frame, it is made of carved wood and Gesso with an attractive top decoration with urns full of flowers over a rose on either side and a shield shaped armorial crest in the centre held by flying birds. The edges of the frame are also decorated and at the bottom corners we have the masks of fierce lions The mirror frame dates from the mid 19th century, the glass seems to be original and has only a little foxing and the frame has had occasional repairs over the years but they have been very sympathetically done and it retains its genuine aged attractiveness The Mirror is 64" high and it is 35" wide, the frame is 4" deep and the overall depth of the mirror taking in to account the forward angle of the birds is 8" NC36 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England & Wales, Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We only operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person is not an option. In the unlikely event you wish to return an item you should contact us immediately. We will then arrange for you to return it to us at the buyer's expense, the item must be returned ba...
