Description

Highest quality William IV mahogany three part desk by JAMES WINTER, 101 WARDOUR STREET, LONDON. The two pedestals with cupboard doors with drawers inside on both sides. The drawers all mahogany lined with original turned ebony knobs. The cupboard doors with original locks and working key. The top section with three drawers with old replacement brass swan neck handles. Again the drawers are mahogany lined. The leather insert top looks to be the original. The middle top drawer is stamped with the makers name and 101 Wardour Street address along the top edge. The desk pedestals have all their original castors which again are top quality. The desk is top quality and is in very good condition. The back looks almost as good as the front. James Winter and Sons where working at the 101 Wardour address from 1823 up until 1840 when the business moved to 151/153/155 Wardour Street. Much of the furniture that survives bearing this stamp is of the very highest quality. Other examples of this firms furniture can be seen on 1stDibbs.com. SIZE; 50" wide by 22 1/2" deep by 30 1/2" high CIRCA; 1830
