Description

A very elegant and finely constructed mid 19th century burr walnut two drawer writing table with leather insert made by one of the finest 19th century cabinet makers Gillow. Stamped "Gillow L353". The rectangular top having a tan leather and gilt tooled inset surface with a burr walnut surround and moulded edge sitting over a burr walnut frieze containing two pull out mahogany lined drawers with finely hand cut dovetails. One being stamped Gillow L353. The top supported by a very elegant base having twin ring turned reeded and carved supports to each end united by turned stretcher terminating on shaped turned feet with recessed brass castors. This Gillows table with wonderful coloured burr walnut veneers is in excellent condition having been fully restored with a hand dyed tan and gilt tooled leather insert fitted. A very good writing table of excellent form and style being made by the most famous cabinet making firms of the 19th century Gillow. The attention to detail in the construction of this table is also to be admired. A very nice table indeed!
