Description

Better than usual rosewood, burr yew-wood and brass inlaid drawing instrument box complete with original tray of instruments. The top of the box is very nice with burr yew-wood veneers and double brass line inlay. The tray inside contains all the original German silver and ivory instruments which are all correct for the box. One pen is the only item not original. Under the tray there are a pair of wooden set squares, a brass protractor and a few other minor items. The original ivory handled pen has the makers name of ELLIOTT on the handle who were drawing instrument makers in the 19th and early 20th centuries. SIZE; 8 1/4" long by 5" wide by 2" high CIRCA; 1870 - 1880 Price includes UK postage costs.
