Description

Very pretty art nouveau style silver teaspoon formed as a leaf with twisted stems wrapping around the handle and topped with cabochon rock crystal surrounded by 6 small blue and green enamel leaves. The bowl is shaped and engraved with vein detail and the crystal cabochon has a beaded border to the setting. Made by the master Charles Horner and hallmarked for Birmingham 1928. It measures 4 7/8" long and weighs 12.7g/0.4ozt. Condition is very good but there is a little damage to the enamel glaze in places. Otherwise just light surface wear good for age and use.
