Description

A charming matched pair of early 19th Century Welsh oak side chairs with a wonderfully rich and glowing patina. These beautiful chairs are raised on turned front legs and stretcher with highly decorative heart shaped splats. One of the chairs is stamped with the makers initials 'R.B'. The chairs are sound, solid and in good order, there is evidence of some historic minor strengthening to the underside of one chair, this can be seen in the photos. Two attractive and highly decorative country chairs of character, cleaned and waxed ready for the home. c.1810
