Description

19th Century French Horse Measuring Walking Stick. A real rare piece, this charming walking stick with horn handle and gold collar decorated with tracery, (there is no visible hall mark on the Collar). This attractive stick has a secret inside, when the horn handle is pulled from the Bamboo walking cane it reveals a brass horse measuring rod. There is a steel level that pulls out from the brass measure, being French the usual Hand measurement is marked with M for Main etched into the brass, otherwise it is the same as an English measure. The Stick is in good usable condition, but due to much use it does have the expected curve so often found on pieces this age, and signs of age. The stick is 71" fully extended, closed it is 37" NC74

Internal Ref: NC74
