Description

Antique Victorian deep buttoned leather armchair on turned mahogany feet with original porcelain casters. This is a stunning looking armchair, with a great shape & very comfortable too. It has been re-upholstered & the leather has been hand coloured, antiqued & hand tacked. This armchair was originally upholstered in leather when I obtained it, but the leather was ripped & perished, plus it needed re-springing. I would have saved it if I could, but it was too far gone. Either way, it's a great chair & a one off. The general design, shape & deep buttoning is exactly how it was before, so this is how it would have looked originally. Width - 33.5", 85 cm Depth - 37", 94 cm Height - 36", 91 cm Seat Height - 14", 35 cm
