Description

A fine quality side cabinet , or credenza, from the mid-Victorian period. Of excellent construction in walnut with stunning burr walnut veneers. The cabinet is decorated throughout with inlaid stringing and floral decorations and also fitted with good crisp brass ormolu mounts. This cabinet is of rare form with a bow fronted, glazed central section, flanked by a pair of end cupboard doors. The central section is also raised in height, sitting proud of the two end sections. All doors open to access shelved and lined interiors, all doors are lockable (key supplied). At present this cabinet is fitted with its original lining material, this is somewhat faded , if you desire we can reline it with a material of your choosing. The cabinet itself is in truly excellent condition , with a wonderful finish , lovely colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 166cms Depth 42cms Height 114cms
