Description

A splendid inlaid mahogany cupboard, or gentlemen's press, by the renowned maker Edwards and Roberts of London. Of fine quality construction using a very high grade of dense Cuban mahogany. The top is cross banded in satinwood, which is replicated to the drawer fronts. The freeze is decorated with garlands of harebells and a central paterae. The cupboard doors are adorned with profuse floral marquetry inlay of the highest quality. This piece of furniture provides extensive storage space; the central cupboards doors (lockable, key supplied) open to reveal a series of 4 pull-out trays. The cupboards are flanked by two banks of 4 graduated drawers, each fitted with their original brass handles. This item would serve well in a variety of room settings in the modern home, eg dining room, bedroom or living room, potentially as a TV cupboard. We have had it cleaned and waxed in our workshops so it is now offered for sale in excellent original condition with a lovely colour and patina.
