Description

A very nice example of a Early 19th Century pine marriage chest dating from 1825. Still showing some of the lovely original flower paintwork to the front and sides, and a gorgeous rustic lid. This chest would have been given to newly weds as a marriage gift. You can see pictured here the original carrying handles and candle box inside the chest. Nowadays these chest's are proving ever popular with our customers especially when sourced with the original paintwork. They make lovely window seats, coffee tables, lamp stands, or as originally intended, a blanket box at the end of your bed. Height 19.5", width 48", depth 23"

Internal Ref: M0304B
