Description

A very fine, small and elegant late 18th century tortoiseshell TEA CADDY in spectacular condition. The "tented" top is surmounted by a cast silver bow handle, with engraved silver divisions between each of the tortoiseshell panels. The front features a typical small silver escutcheon above a shield-shaped cartouche, whilst the interior, which retains most of its original lead lining, is complete with inner lid with matching silver bow handle.  This pretty small caddy really is delightful and totally original. 4.75ins high; 4.0ins wide; 3ins deep. (12 x 10 x 7.6cms)

Internal Ref: 1268
