Description

A very old pine marriage chest / trunk dating from before 1799 and in splendid condition for its age. The original paintwork is still very visible, showing the date it was given as a wedding gift, 1799, and the initials of the newly weds "CFS". Some lovely colours and flowers were painted on this particular chest. It has so much character and charm, a really rather gorgeous piece, with a very nice rustic lid. Our painted marriage chests are becoming very popular with our customers. It is rare to find some in such nice condition as this one. The particular chest has some of the best original strap hinges we have seen !! Nowadays customers buy these types of chests to use as a coffee table alternative or a lamp / hallway table, or an under window seat. They would have originally stored blanket's and linen at the end of ones bed, which they are still used for today. Height 18", width 49.5", depth 27"
