A wonderful pair of elegant desk, or armchairs, from the early/mid Victorian period. Very well made, with solid walnut frames and upholstered in sumptuous green leather. The frames are strong and sturdy and of generous proportions. The turned legs terminate in their original brass caps, a really nice feature. The green leather upholstery is in excellent condition, with a lovely colour, complete with brass studwork. These chairs are extremely comfortable to sit in and are very supportive. They could be used as desk, club, or armchairs so would sit well within a number of different room scenarios.
