Description

A very good quality burr walnut sideboard by the renowned London firm of Maple and Co. Of good construction in walnut and attractive burr walnut veneers, in the Queen Anne style. The top is surmounted by an upstand to the rear with a central carved crest. The main body of the sideboard has a pair of end cupboards flanking two, long, central drawers. The cupboards are lockable (key supplied) and open to access shelved interiors. The drawers are fitted with their charming original brass swan-neck handles and the top drawer is compartmentalised for cutlery. The whole sideboard stands on elegant cabriole legs with carved shell decorations to the knees. We have had this item sympathetically repolished to a very high standard. It is now offered for sale in excellent condition, with a lovely mellow colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 160cms Depth 56cms Height 107cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man. By...
